

The Herald and News

E. H. AGUI, Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Newberry, S. C., as second class matter.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1905.

Harvie Jordan now talks about 15 cents per pound for cotton. The farmers have the matter in their own hands but having won the position taken by the Southern Cotton association at Asheville the matter might be left to the judgment of each cotton grower.

The monument to the late N. G. Gonzales which has been erected in Columbia will be unveiled on the 23rd. The exercises will be in charge of Mr. W. A. Clark, president of the Gonzales monument association. The address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. S. M. Smith, a friend of Mr. Gonzales.

Greenville voted out the dispensary on Tuesday by a very large majority. It seems now to be a matter of course that when an election is ordered in a county on the dispensary that the result is fixed from the beginning and very few people take any interest in it.

We congratulate our neighbor, Prosperity, on the handsome new school building which has just been completed. It would do credit to a much larger city. It is a substantial building and well appointed for the uses for which it is designated. It is one of the best investments the people of this community ever made. It will be an inspiration to teachers and pupils alike and all will do better work.

Every citizen of the city should and will feel a personal interest and pride in the school now.

Prof. Counts has labored faithfully in this community and we know he feels encouraged to do even greater things in the future.

News From Excelsior.

Excelsior, November 13.—We have had nice rains and grain is looking nicely. Sowing will now be pushed to a finish.

Our school is moving on nicely with a good attendance of pupils.

The new school building in Prosperity is a nice piece of work and an ornament to the town.

Singley Brothers of Jolly Street, have opened up a shingle mill which will be quite a convenience to the entire neighborhood.

Mr. James P. Cook and family have moved to Mr. J. M. Werts' place.

Mr. D. B. Cook is rebuilding his tenant house that was recently destroyed by fire.

Mr. J. Mal Cook after a two weeks' vacation at his home here, returned to his work last Thursday.

Mr. B. L. Wheeler, mail clerk on the Southern road, visited his brother, Prof. J. S. Wheeler, here last week.

Rev. Jas. D. Kinard, of Cameron, while in attendance at the synod is visiting his brother, Mr. H. J. Kinard.

We attended the synod at St. Paul's church Saturday and Sunday. Many improvements have been made at St. Paul's since our last visit there which speaks well for the congregation. Last Tuesday's issue of The Herald and News gave an interesting account of St. Paul's church and no doubt that issue of the paper will be preserved for years to come and it should be.

Rev. Jas. D. Kinard, of Cameron, preached in Grace church at Prosperity on Sunday night.

We were glad to have the pleasure of seeing our former pastor, the Rev. W. A. Lutz, of Statesville, N. C., during his visit to Prosperity last week. Rev. Lutz has many friends here who are glad to learn he is getting on so nicely in Statesville. Rev. Lutz spent Thursday with Prof. J. S. Wheeler's family in this section.

The citizens of Excelsior school district met last Thursday night and organized a la wand order league with J. A. C. Kibler, chairman, H. J. Kinard, secretary and J. C. Singley, treasurer. Another meeting will be held next Friday night, 17th, and we hope to have a full attendance.

Mr. Ira Nates, of Columbia, is spending a few days with his father's family there.

MRS. M. O. PATTERSON DEAD.

News Received in Greenville that She Succumbed to Injuries Received by Accident in California.

Greenville, November 13.—A telegram was received here this morning announcing the death of Mrs. Martha Orr Patterson, daughter of the late Governor J. L. Orr, and sister of the late Col. James Lawrence Orr, in San Diego, California, yesterday, from the effects of injuries received in a runaway while driving.

Mrs. Patterson had been attending the annual convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy at San Francisco, and on her way home had stopped at San Diego with friends.

The Hon. L. O. Patterson, of this city, is her only surviving son. A sister is Mrs. Mary Orr Earle, of Washington, and one brother, Dr. S. M. Orr, of Anderson. Mr. Patterson and Dr. J. L. Orr, Jr., left this afternoon to accompany the remains to this city.

West End News.

Married, Saturday night by Rev. J. H. Graves, Mr. Pierce Robertson and Miss Lucy Thompson, both of West End.

Married, Sunday evening November 12, by the Rev. A. J. Bowers, Mr. S. C. Hiller and Miss Ella Cook.

Mr. C. R. Wesson accompanied by his wife and two children have gone to Madison, Florida.

The seats of the O'Neill Street church have been placed in position. They are handsome pews of quarter sawed oak.

Last Friday morning we found ourselves staggering all over the sidewalks for the want of light. We were in total darkness and it was pouring down rain. It is true the moon was up, but was hidden behind the cloud. If we do not need light in this kind of weather we do not need it at all.

Mr. William Moon and family moved to Fountain Inn this week to make their future home. We regret to lose the family from our midst.

Misses Annie and Madge Crooks spent Saturday night and Sunday with friends and relatives of the Broad river section.

Not Such An Easy Matter.

"These shoes will be all right," said the salesman, "after you have got them broken in."

The young man, who had been hesitating between that pair and one a size larger, took the salesman's word for it, and purchased the shoes. A week later he came back to the store with a perceptible limp.

"I wish you'd stretch these shoes," he said. "They hurt my feet terribly."

"Haven't you got them broken in yet?" asked the salesman.

"Oh, yes," said the young man. "The trouble is that I can't get my feet broken in."

THE PLACE TO BUY

If I have accomplished anything in the past year in business, besides increasing my sales and enlarging my stock, it has been to prove to the people of Newberry County that my store is the place to buy their Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Men's Furnishing Goods, Hosiery, Gloves, Underwear, Neckwear, Shirts, Collars and Cuffs, Suspenders, Suit Cases, Traveling Bags, Trunks and Umbrellas, and in fact everything that is found a first class Clothing, Shoe and Hat Store. They also know that my business is conducted on the principle of live and let live, and that everybody will receive fair treatment, and that a child can buy as safely as a grown person. I appreciate very highly the business you have given me already this fall, but have now, and will continue to have, until the close of the year bargains in all of our departments. New Hats, New Shoes, New Clothing, New Shirts, New Underwear added this week, and I am expecting more next week, and with them some goods specially suited for Christmas presents and for the holiday trade.

Come and see me often. Tell your friends about my store.
